

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.

TWO WITNESSES IN THE PHILIP CASE HELD
THE INVESTIGATION CONCLUDED—MOREY'S REPUTED UNCLE AGAIN EXAMINED AND ANOTHER MAN WHO CLAIMED TO KNOW MOREY ON THE STAND—REFUTING THOSE WITNESSES—THE TWO PLEDED MEN ARRESTED BEFORE LEAVING THE COURT-ROOM ON COMPLAINT OF MR. BLISS.

The Philip investigation ended yesterday with the overthrow of the defence and the arrest for perjury of the two main witnesses brought forward to establish the identity of the alleged H. L. Morey. One of these, Samuel S. Morey, testified that H. L. Morey was his father's brother; but all the living members of his immediate family, including his mother, testified that they had no such relative as H. L. or Henry L. Morey, and that they had never heard of a Morey with any such initials until the appearance of the fraudulent letter. The statements of the other witness arrested, James L. Barry, alias Robert Lindsay, were as overwhelmingly refuted. Both were committed to the Tomb. In the closing address to the Court Mr. Howe, of counsel for the defence, caused a sensation by declaring that an effort had been made to produce in court all the witnesses suggested by the Democratic National Committee in support of the forged letter.

CLOSING THE INVESTIGATION.

When the hour for resuming the examination of the charge of perjury filed against Kenneth Philip in connection with the fraudulent Morey letter was reached yesterday morning, the court-room had been full for some time, and many persons were waiting without, unable to find places inside the room where Justice Davis presided over the inquiry. The large array of counsel for both defence and prosecution attended for ten defences, six in number, attended in full force all day.

The proceedings began by the Justice asking whether the defence was ready, to fulfil its promise and produce the witness Samuel S. Morey. Mr. Howe and Brooks replied that his colleague Mr. Howe, and of counsel for the defence, had not arrived yet. Mr. Blodgett had not pending the arrival of Mr. Howe with the witness Morey, the prosecution being permitted to place some witnesses on the stand. The defence conceded, and ex-Alderman William Richardson, of Brooklyn, was called substantially the same on behalf of Mr. Morey.

Q.—What is your name? A.—Samuel S. Morey.

Q.—Where do you live? A.—In Lynn, Mass.

Q.—How long have you been here? A.—Seventy-five years.

Q.—How much pay do you receive? A.—Seventy-five dollars a month.

Q.—How do you get it? A.—In letters from Mr. Thompson.

Q.—Do you get them by mail? A.—No, sir. I don't know.

Q.—How do you get them? A.—I had a friend who was a postman, and he would bring me my letters, and I would write the letter to him, and he would bring it to me.

Q.—Do you know Samuel S. Morey, Thomas Donnelly or John O'Conor or James J. Kelly? A.—No.

Q.—What is your present address? A.—Well, I generally go to the Broadway Hotel, but I cannot give the names of any of the families with whom I stayed. I generally went in where I saw a sign out of doors.

Q.—What is the name of the mine to which you went? A.—The Ekar mine.

Q.—Where is the Ekar mine? A.—In the hills to which you went.

Q.—Do you know Samuel S. Morey, Thomas Donnelly or John O'Conor or James J. Kelly? A.—Yes, I do.

Q.—What is your present address? A.—I am not at home.

Q.—Do you receive any money when you return to Lynn? A.—Yes.

Q.—Does the witness Morey receive any money when you return to Lynn? A.—Yes.

Q.—How much does he get? A.—Oh, I don't know. I used to get $100 a month.

Q.—Will you repeat that? A.—I did.

Q.—Will you repeat that? A.—Mr. Clarke, the keeper of a mineral saloon in Lynn, Mass., a nephew of Captain F. A. Morey, said to me that he had a brother named Frank P. Morey, who was an engineer on the Ekar mine. Frank and I have known each other since we were boys, and he had known me, and I had known him, when we were boys.

Q.—Did you ever see the Ekar mine? A.—No.
